Atlanta City Council
55 Trinity Avenue
Suite 2900
Atlanta, GA 30303

Dear President and Members of Atlanta City Council:

The BeltLine Network is pleased to offer the appointment of Kelly Hill to the BeltLine TAD Advisory Committee for a 2-year term to provide technical expertise in the area of Community Outreach and Engagement. Dr. Hill is the founder and principal of Nexus Research Group, a consulting firm specializing in community-based research. She previously served as a Senior Research Specialist with Emory University's Office of University - Community Partnerships where she contributed to research on a range of metropolitan issues, from prisoner re-entry to affordable housing and regional equity.

We believe her experience and qualifications will make her an asset on the Advisory Committee.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth B. Coyle
Chair
BeltLine Network

Kelly Hill, Ph.D.

Kelly Hill is the founder and principal of Nexus Research Group, a full-service consulting firm specializing in community-based research. She previously served as a Senior Research Specialist with Emory University's Office of University - Community Partnerships where she contributed to research on a range of metropolitan issues, from prisoner re-entry to affordable housing and regional equity.

As an independent consultant, Kelly has provided training and facilitation on topics including urban governance, neighborhood change, civic and community engagement and youth leadership development. She is the author of numerous reports and course curricula, among them Managing Neighborhood Change: Best Practices for Communities Undergoing Gentrification (published by NeighborWorks America).

Kelly Hill holds a Bachelor's Degree from Clark Atlanta University and a Ph.D. from Emory University, both in political science.
